

A Year of Words Book Challenge 2016

with ItsAWahmLife.com

I love words, and wanted to challenge myself to read books I might not normally find. Thus the Year of Words Book Challenge. Each week has a word. You pick the book. Fiction, non fiction, whatever feels good. Can't think of a book? Go to Amazon, stick the word (or a form of the word) in the search box and see what comes up. Pick the one that speaks to you and read on! You're welcome to join us in conversation, book choosing, and general word shenigans in my Fiercely Radiant Facebook group. You can also follow my year of words on my blog,
